DISCORD RULES

No Spamming or Self-Promotion:

- Do not spam the chat with irrelevant messages or self-promotion.
- Self-promotion is only allowed in designated channels or after receiving permission from a moderator.

Respectful Behavior:

- Treat all members with respect and courtesy. No harassment, hate speech, or personal attacks will be tolerated.
- Maintain a professional tone in discussions.

Stay On-Topic:

- Keep discussions related to web and video editing topics in their respective channels.
- Off-topic discussions should be taken to an appropriate channel or private messages.

No NSFW Content:

- Do not share or discuss any explicit, adult, or NSFW content.
- Keep all content safe for work.

Quality Over Quantity:

- When sharing work or seeking feedback, prioritize quality over quantity. Avoid excessive posting of unfinished or low-quality projects.

No Plagiarism:

- Do not use or share copyrighted materials without proper attribution or permission.
- Give credit where it's due.

No Trolling or Flame Wars:

- Do not engage in trolling or flame wars. Constructive criticism is encouraged, but avoids toxic behavior.

Advertising Guidelines:

- Advertising of products or services related to web and video editing is allowed but should be done sparingly.
- Contact a moderator for permission before posting any advertisements.

Keep Language and Content Appropriate:

- Use appropriate language and content that is suitable for all ages.
- Avoid excessive use of profanity.

Respect Copyright and Licensing:

- Ensure that all shared content adheres to copyright and licensing laws.
- Seek permission and provide proper attribution when necessary.

No Unauthorized Bots or Automation:

- Do not use unauthorized bots or automation tools without permission from the server owner or moderators.

Follow Discord Terms of Service:

- Abide by Discord's Terms of Service and Community Guidelines.

Moderator Authority:

- Respect the decisions and instructions of server moderators. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary actions.

Reporting Issues:

- If you encounter any issues, report them to a moderator or use the designated reporting channels.

Multiple Accounts:

- Do not create multiple accounts for the purpose of evading bans or causing disruptions.

Disciplinary Actions:

- Violation of these rules may result in warnings, temporary mute, temporary ban, or permanent ban, depending on the severity of the offense.

Rules Are Subject to Change:

- These rules are subject to change at the discretion of the server owner or moderators. Make sure to stay updated with any changes.

Verification and Introductions:

- New members may be required to verify their identity or skills in web and video editing before gaining full access to the server.
- New members should introduce themselves in the designated channel upon joining.

Language Channels:

- Use designated language channels for non-English discussions to keep the main channels focused.
